

HOW TO KNOW WHEN YOU'RE #ADULTING

According to a recent online survey of U.S. adults, ninety percent of Americans feel like an adult, but what is it that symbolizes we're truly a grown-up? New Moen research explores what made us say, "Wow, I'm really not a kid anymore."

From paying bills to parenting, being an adult means overseeing our own home and family units.

#MOVINGOUT

49%

of Americans said moving out of their parent's home made/would make them feel like an adult.

#HITCHED

54%

of Americans say that getting married made/would make them feel like an adult.

Moving out of mom and dad's = financial independence

#TINYHUMANS

49%

of Americans say having a child made/would make them feel like an adult.

#HOMEBUYER

50%

of Americans say buying a home made/would make them feel like an adult.

HELLO MY NAME IS MOM/DAD

What's more grown up than that?

Being responsible for someone else is a sure sign of adulthood.

#DIY

30%

of Americans say doing home repair/renovation project(s) made/would make them feel like an adult.

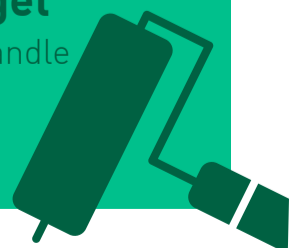

#UPGRADES

34%

of Americans say that purchasing home appliances/products such as kitchen/bathroom faucets made/would make them feel like an adult.

Grab those tools and get to work – grown-ups can handle home improvement projects (if not, there's always YouTube).

Wherever you are in life, Moen offers plenty of products to make "adulting" easier. Find out more at Moen.com
